

4526.2-R STUDENT COMPUTER AND INTERNET USE REGULATION

The following rules and regulations are intended to provide general guidelines and examples of prohibited uses but do not attempt to state all required or prohibited activities by users. Failure to comply with policies/rules may result in loss of computer and Internet access privileges, disciplinary action and/or legal action.

A. Computer Use is a Privilege, Not a Right

Student use of the District's computers, networks, and Internet services is a privilege, not a right. Unacceptable use/activity may result in suspension or cancellation of privileges as well as additional disciplinary and/or legal action.

The building principal shall have final authority to decide whether a student's privileges will be denied or revoked.

B. Acceptable Use

Student access to the District computer's, networks, and Internet services are provided for educational purposes and research consistent with the District's educational mission, curriculum, and instructional goals.

The same rules and expectations govern student use of computers as apply to other student conduct and communication.

Students are further expected to comply with these rules and all specific instructions from the teacher or other supervising staff member/volunteer when accessing the District's computers, networks, and Internet services.

C. Prohibited Use

The user is responsible for his/her actions and activities involving District computers, network, and Internet services and for his/her computer files, passwords, and accounts. Examples of unacceptable uses that are expressly prohibited include, but are not limited to the following:

9. Unauthorized Access to Chat Rooms/News Groups - Accessing chat rooms or news groups without specific authorization from the supervising teacher.

D. No Expectation of Privacy

The District retains control, custody, and supervision of all computers, networks, and Internet services owned or leased by the District. The District reserves the right to monitor all computer and Internet activity by students. Students have no expectations of privacy in their use of school computers, including e-mail and stored files.

E. Compensation for Losses, Costs and/or Damages

The student and/or the student's parent/guardian shall be responsible for compensating the school unit for any losses, costs or damages incurred by the District related to violations of Board Policy and District rules, including investigation of violations.

F. District Assumes No Responsibility for Unauthorized Charges, Costs, or Illegal Use

The District assumes no responsibility for any unauthorized charges made by students including but not limited to credit card charges, long distance telephone charges, equipment and line costs, or for any illegal use of its computers such as copyright violations.

G. Student Security

A student shall not reveal his/her full name, address or telephone number on the Internet without prior permission from a supervising teacher. Students should never meet people they have contacted through the Internet without parental permission. Students should inform their supervising teacher if they access information or messages that are dangerous, inappropriate, or make them uncomfortable in any way.

H. System Security

The security of the District's computers, networks, and Internet services is a high priority. Any user who identifies a security problem must notify the system administrator. The user shall not demonstrate the problem to others. Any user who attempts or causes a breach of system security shall have his/her privileges revoked and may be subject to additional disciplinary and/or legal action.

I. Parental Permission Required

Students and their parent/guardian are required to sign and return the Computer User Account Agreement before being allowed to use school computers.
